

Palgrave Handbook of Attacks on History

Permissions

Version: 1 September 2023

It is the author's responsibility to clear permissions for re-using any third party material that falls outside fair use. This is an additional checklist relating to permissions issues that may require further attention. Please complete this form and submit to your editor with your draft manuscript.

Author name:

Chapter title:

	Yes	No
Does the manuscript include any third party material for which permission is required?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

If you have been granted permission for any third party material, please confirm by ticking this box that you have added any captions or credits as required by the copyright holders.

Additional questions

Yes

No

1. Is your chapter due to be published open access?

Note: Palgrave offers open access on an individual chapter basis with a chapter processing charge of EUR 2,170 (plus any applicable VAT and other taxes).

2. Is your chapter a translation?

3. Does your chapter include any maps?

4. Does your chapter include quotation from any unpublished material?

5. Does your chapter include quotation of any poetry?

6. Does your chapter include quotation of song lyrics?

7. Does your chapter include a previously published chapter/chapters?

8. If yes, do you have the appropriate permission?

9. Does your chapter include any images of children?

10. Does your chapter include any images of members of the public?

11. Does your chapter include any images from social media?

12. How many images/figures have you included in your manuscript?

If you have answered 'yes' to any of the questions above, please give further details on the following page including location of the material in question within the manuscript (i.e. chapter and page number) and details of the relevant material/permissions. Please also provide any supporting documentation.

